

Local Items

Ed. Wells of Portageville, a former Cape boy, is back in town on business.

Arthur Perkins of Marble Hill is in the Cape on business.

L. C. Hoffmeister of Jackson was a guest at the Terminal Tuesday.

R. C. Moore of Blythesville is stopping at the Riverview.

H. Balman of Columbia, Mo., is in the Cape on business and is registered at the Riverview.

W. A. Dunn of Marble Hill had business in the Cape Tuesday and was a guest at the St. Charles.

Christopher Beck, brewer from Cairo, was in the Cape Tuesday on business matters.

J. J. Atkinson is in the Cape on business this week, and is stopping at the Prescott.

M. G. Tidwell of Arbor is in the Cape this week having been called to serve on the jury.

A. C. Dickmann of Allenville is in the Cape on account of court matters this week.

Investigate the advantages of Park Place, the best place to build your home. Ben Vinyard, Agent, Phone 289.

Alva Holshouser of Tiber, Ill., representing the Mutual Wheel Co., is in the Cape on business. He is stopping at the Aquamisi.

Mrs. H. C. Burns wife of the proprietor of the Aquamisi Hotel, is confined to her bed with a severe nervous attack.

Dolph Cato a prominent farmer of Greenbrier is in the Cape on legal business. He is a guest at Scott's.

L. W. Barrett of Allenville, is in the Cape attending court. He is stopping at Scott's.

The Trades Council met in regular session last night at which time they decided on a big booster meeting of all the local union men, to be held on the night of the second Monday in March.

Dr. Warren Smith of Sikeston is in the Cape on a business trip and is visiting his daughter who is attending school in this city. Dr. Smith is stopping at the Aquamisi.

D. A. Luckey of Bloomfield passed through the Cape yesterday on his way to Longtown where he will visit with his mother.

G. C. McElreath to Luther Stroder, 55.44 acres, part surveys 2272 and 2215, —$2,217.

Mary M. Vasterling, to L. C. Stallings, lot in Whitewater, —$300.

Frank Meier to B. F. Davis, and Frank Meier to B. F. Davis, und., Unt. 70 acres, part sec. 29, tp. 29, range 12, —$600.

Robert K. Wilson to J. H. C. Kerstner, 1-3 int. in lots in Jackson, —$300.

Emily Koehler to Oliver Ruppig, lots 46 and 47 Jackson, —$500.

Hon. Chas. H. Daues is in the Cape greeting his old time friends. He came down from St. Louis yesterday to attend to some matters in the Common Pleas Court, and will return this afternoon.

T. B. Crites of Oak Ridge is a jurymen in the court being held here this week. He is stopping at the Prescott.

W. J. Misenheimer and C. M. Waddle are in the Cape this week in attendance upon the case of Hull vs. Withers in the Common Pleas Court.

Mrs. August Rodenmayer and Lawrence Welter of Anzell have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Lail, and returned to their homes this afternoon.

Harry Haman of Allenville is in the Cape attending court. He is stopping at Scott's.

H. H. Hinton of Allenville is in the Cape in attendance upon the Common Pleas court now in session.

Lieut. Craig came down yesterday from St. Louis and visited the local recruiting station. He took back four candidates for enlistment.

H. W. Baker, Jr., and G. C. Montgomery, of Sikeston, are in the Cape on business and are stopping at the St. Charles Hotel.

Everybody is using Sailor Girl Self-rising flour. Handled by all grocers. Nothing to equal it. Ask your Grocer for it. Biscuits always good. Thos. S. Lilly, Agt.

E. J. Justice of Sikeston contemplates moving to the Cape in the near future and is in the city at this time trying to locate a suitable residence location. He is a guest at the Aquamisi.

Have you seen our new line of Watches and Endless Selection of Solid Gold and Gold Filled Cases thin Model or Regular. Every watch guaranteed, prices from $5.00 to $100. N. S. Weiler, 126 Main St.

Laura Lindsay, by her attorney James H. Doris, has filed answer in the divorce proceedings brought in the Common Pleas Court by her husband Joseph Lindsay, and has petitioned the court for alimony.

Ed. Crowell a young man from Sapulpa, Oklahoma, was arrested yesterday afternoon by officer Lee Archison on suspicion of carrying concealed weapons. A pistol was found upon him but it had been taken to pieces and the different parts were found in his various pockets. The young man stated that he had started to sell the gun to a second hand dealer in order that he might obtain money with which to buy food. He also stated that his search for employment had proven fruitless and he was suffering from hunger. Chief Nichols was touched by the story and out of generosity gave him $1.50 and released him.

O. W. Hall, the famous fighting marshal formerly of Allenville, now of Oran, is in the Cape on his return from a trip to St. Louis. He is a guest of the St. Charles.

J. A. Cunningham, a prominent business man of Caruthersville, passed through the Cape Monday on his way to St. Louis.

The Cape Building & Loan Association met in regular session last night and retired the 27th series of stock, and issued the 50th series which begins on March 2nd.

Earl Russell of Quiln, Mo., is a guest at Scott's.

Louis B. Davis, of Pinckneyville, Ill., is registered at Scott's. Mr. Davis has been visiting his mother near Delta, who suffered severe injuries from a fall some a year ago. He intended taking her back with him, but found her still unable to travel.

Haman & Wichterich have purchased the store room they have occupied for a number of years on Broadway, known as the Coerver property.

The Carpenters and Joiners met last night in regular session. After the regular routine of business, a delightful lunch was indulged in.

Mr. Dan Fogle who has been fattening up at the Aquamisi for a few days, returned to his home in Hayti this morning.

Mr. Peebles, a life and accident insurance agent from Fredericktown is in the Cape on business, a guest of the Aquamisi.

Guy McMillan of Piggott, Ark., is in the Cape on business.

W. N. Sullivan of Poplar Bluff has business in the Cape, and is stopping at the Aquamisi.

Mr. LeGrand and Joe Glick of Kelso were Cape visitors Monday.

Adam Heiserer and Alvin Feuerhahn, prominent farmers from near Dutchtown were in the Cape with big loads of country produce Monday.

Jack Moore, a C. G. & N. section man has his fingers badly crushed Monday.

Socks Noeninger, Herb Miller and Ed Martle went to Dutchtown Monday night to attend a mask ball. Martle masqueraded as a dago and Noeninger and Miller posed as monkeys. It is said that they were masked.

Mrs. Ezekiel Mabrey and two children, of Jackson are visiting with the family of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Lail.

Dr. O. W. Miller of Chilanhua, Mexico, passed through the Cape today on his way to Millerville where he is going to visit his mother.

Wm. Norvell of St. Louis is a guest at the Terminal.

The secretary of the Commercial Club has a number of special Southeast Missouri Sections of the Sunday Republic which he is selling at 2 cents each. Those desiring to get these sections can call on him.

Miss Lora Harvey is visiting her home in Kirkwood, Mo., this week.

Professor Doeden, of the Education department is attending a convention at Richmond, Va. He will return Friday.

New reporters were elected Monday for the Capaha Arrow, the school paper.

The Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. will have a joint program Friday morning at 10:35 o'clock. You are invited and if you do not come you will miss a rare treat.

The Dramatic Club announced its next play this morning, it is "The Turning of the Road", by Rutherford Mayne. There will be a short play for a curtain raiser. The name of the short play has not been announced as yet.

The Fall term examinations will begin next week. Notice the woe begone countenances of the students.

D. Davenport of Illmo, had business in the Cape Friday.

Remember "The Girls of 1776" at the Opera House, February 23, 21

It is reported that all the mills in South Cape are closed until the water subsides.

Fred Douglas, a prominent farmer at Delta, Ill., has business in the Cape this week.

J. A. Welen of Perryville is in the Cape on business, and is stopping at the Riverview.

G. P. Morton of Fruitland, had business in the Cape Friday. He was registered at Scott's.

J. Crawford a business man of Brownwood, is in the Cape looking after some business affairs.

M. E. Lessem of the Riverview, returned Friday night from a business trip to southern points.

P. Z. Goss of Deray is stopping at Scott's and is in the Cape looking after the purchase of a farm.

L. Hedden of University Place, Nebr., is a guest at the Terminal during his business stay in the Cape.

A. S. Reed of Advance, who has been teaching school at Idalia, passed through the Cape Friday on his way home.

George Whiteacre an old time employee of the Missouri Public Utilities Co., is suffering a severe attack of the grip, but is still able to be around.

A. Kuellmer, formerly a Jackson boy, now holding a responsible position with the Mechanics Bank of St. Louis, stopped over in the Cape Friday night on his way to Jackson for a visit with his parents.

Misses Grace Drake and Minnie Gilbert of Chaffee came up to the Cape Friday evening to do some shopping. They are guests at the Terminal.

Earl E. Colvin and wife, Charles Colvin, Geo. W. Blackburn, Ed. Stanley and Lorne Clawson of the Colvin Hypnotic Company are stopping at the Prescott.

Louis Volk, elevator expert from St. Louis is in the Cape installing a modern automobile life with a capacity of 4,000 pounds for the Hope-Cotner Auto Co.

The Freshmen and Seniors will play basket ball at the next "open night", Saturday evening at the Normal. This will be a good game and you will lose out if you do not see it. Another interesting event will be the rope climbs. Free to all.

The secretary of the Commercial Club is receiving many letters of inquiry following the boosts in Sunday's Republic. These letters are from business investors, people wanting farms and people seeking school advantages for their children.

The first case to come up in the Common Pleas Court is the injunction proceedings of Hattie Osterloh against the City, the Frisco and the contractors engaged in the work of improving the river front.

O. J. Goehring the well known trapper man has recently acquired a team of small animals which in many respects resemble the mule, but possessed of habits widely different to those of the ordinary familiar type of the long eared beasts of burden. This after while coming down Spanish street this eccentric pair of pullers became frightened at a street har and eluded a tree in front of John Miller's residence.

One of the between the act specialties, February 23rd, at the Opera House, will be a flag drill by forty-eight Camp Fire Girls.

Miss Clara Slyban of Sikeston is in the Cape on a shopping trip. She is stopping at the Riverview.

M. E. Lessem of the Riverview left Sunday afternoon for Kennett.

C. B. Miller a merchant of Neelys Landing, is in the Cape on business and is stopping at the Riverview.

W. W. Davis, a timberman from Chautauk is in the Cape on a business trip, and is a guest at the Riverview.

Paul J. Broth, a traveling salesman from Fort Wayne, is stopping at the Riverview.

R. McFarland of Fredericktown, representing the Reliable Insurance Co., is in the Cape looking after the interests of his company, and is stopping at the Aquamisi hotel.

The little three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Miller, living on Morgan-Oak street, dies Sunday and will be buried this afternoon at about 2 o'clock at the Lorimer cemetery.

O. L. Huffman of Jackson passed through the Cape Sunday on his way to St. Louis to see his father who has been in the hospital undergoing an operation for gall stones.

Chris Stiver city engineer, has been laid up with a heavy cold but is able to be about his work again. He is at this time very busy preparing plans for the contemplated improvements on Washington Avenue from Frederick street to the graveyard.

Word has been received here from Miss Blanche Harrell, of the death of her sister-in-law Mrs. E. B. Harrell of Cairo, Ill. Miss Harrell was called to her bedside several days ago, when it was seen that Mrs. Harrell was rapidly sinking. The deceased leaves a husband and young son to mourn her death. Interment will take place Monday afternoon at Anna, Ill.

The death of Mrs. Presley Davis, wife of the store keeper at the Cement Plant, occurred Saturday morning at her home on Williams street. Mrs. Davis has been ill for several weeks, with blood poisoning, caused from an injury received some time ago. She was formerly Lula Masterson of this city and a sister of Miss Lucy Masterson, a teacher in the Commerce schools. Mrs. Davis' mother, Mrs. R. M. Masterson of this city will take care of her little daughter, as the deceased requested.

The Colvins are booked to entertain at the Princess this week, beginning Tuesday night, and the performance promises to be an interesting one from every standpoint. Colvin is a student of Psychology having received his learning of the fundamental principles of Hypnotism at Harvard University. He is a polished gentleman and is capable of giving a learned discourse on the subject, backing up every claim and contention with an actual test. His work demonstrating the wonderful powers of hypnotism is awe inspiring, and the frivolous and fun making features of the entertainment are mirth provoking in the extreme.

Sergeant O'Rourke of the local recruiting station reports that he has four new applicants for enlistment awaiting the weekly visit of the "War Boss" who will pass upon their qualifications prior to their being sent to Jefferson Barracks for final examination. The sergeant states that the candidates are fine physical specimens and he entertains no doubt but that they will meet all the requirements.

Judge H. E. Alexander left Sunday for a short business trip to Blythesville, Ark.

R. Cannon, of Benton is stopping in the Cape a few days, a guest at the Terminal.

W. C. Christopher, a Frisco conductor, has returned to the Cape after a few days absence, and is stopping at the Terminal.

Mrs. Bob White, of Malden, and her daughter Mrs. Ida Morris, and two children came to the Cape Sunday for a few days' visit with the family of P. H. Hook. Mrs. White is the wife of the editor of the Malden Merit.

A. M. Curtis, traveling salesman from St. Louis is stopping at the Riverview while looking after the needs of his patrons in this city.

Dennis Scivally, County Highway Engineer, and Joe Bilbrey of the Republican office, paid a visit to Elmwood Sunday morning.

Barney Kohlfield left Sunday for a visit with his parents at Burfordville.

A. M. Tinsley left for Illmo this morning on a business trip.

Ed. H. Berry and T. E. Bliss, civil engineers of Chaffee, are in the Cape on business and are stopping at the St. Charles.

The stewards of the Methodist church met at the Post office this morning to arrange for services tomorrow.

Geo. B. Chastaine, the one armed musical wonder, and his little daughters who are also accomplished musicians, left this afternoon to fill an engagement at Oran.

Maj. Giboney Houck left for Bloomfield this afternoon where he has gone to attend to some business affairs.

Herman Beck made a hurried business trip to Chaffee this afternoon.

Miss Etta Montgomery and mother left this afternoon for Mr. Vernon, Ill., to visit friends and relatives.

Two dwelling houses were burned at Illmo last night.

Louis Bender and Charles Walters who have been working on the new church at Illmo returned to the Cape this afternoon.

J. H. Watkins, a prominent stockman of Oran, is in the Cape on business today.

Louis Kohlfield and family returned Friday from a week's visit with Mr. K's family near Burfordville.

Clements Wichterich and John Bletzel, prominent farmers of Kelso, came to the Cape Friday to dispose of a big consignment of clover seed.

O. H. Whitaker of South Ellis street is able to be up again after a severe attack of the grip.

Miss Ida O'Connors of Fredericktown has accepted employment at the Aquamisi hotel.

B. W. Chapman of McClure, Ill., spent Sunday in the Cape a guest of the Aquamisi.

Hon. Louis Houck left for St. Louis Sunday afternoon for a business trip.

Miss Lola Keaton of Bloomfield visited Mrs. J. J. Cunningham Sunday.

Mrs. Lulu Davis was buried Sunday at two o'clock, in the Lorimer Cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Campbell.

Wes Walters and John W. Brown of Louisville were guests at the St. Charles Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Goodman, wife of the foreman of the Cape City Steam Laundry arrived in the Cape Sunday from Shreveport, La.

J. C. Prather and C. C. Schonoff, prominent citizens of Advance were Cape visitors Sunday. They were guests of the St. Charles.

John Kern, of Anna, Ill., has business in the Cape this week, and is registered at Scott's.

Jason Hampton of Deray, paid the Cape a business visit last Saturday, and was a guest at Scott's.

Frank Davall of Springfield, was a Cape visitor Saturday, and was registered at Scott's.

Miss Bessie S. Barber, a niece of Mrs. M. A. Scott, has resigned her position at Scott's restaurant and is going to live with her sister at Quandaria, Kansas.

J. F. Caldwell, county collector, is in the Cape this week looking after official matters.

The case of George H. Kerschner bankrupt, of Poplar Bluff, was taken up before Referee Alexander Ross this morning. The bankrupt was examined and claims filed. Wm. E. Subbield of this city was appointed trustee of the estate.

The water is reported as being over the track at Poplar Bluff and Hoxie line between Nash and Delta, and traffic ordinarily conducted by that route is being cared for by the Cotton Belt between Delta and Rockview.

Wm. Thomas and Phenix Thomas have filed suit in the Common Pleas Court against Phillip Windeknecht, Jr., and Mary M. Windeknecht to have corrected a warranty deed in which it is alleged that an erroneous description was given to certain lands in Cape County, purchased in 1909, by plaintiffs from defendants.

M. D. Meisener of Altenberg is in the Cape on business and is a guest at the Riverview.

V. L. Harris of Benton has business in the Cape today. He is stopping at the Riverview.

Brown Clippard, a prominent farmer of Oak Ridge is in the Cape on business, a guest of the Riverview.

M. E. Byrd and L. A. Lyborger of St. Louis are guests at the Riverview.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dorris of Eminence Mo., are in the city on business.

J. E. Franklin, a St. Louis banker, is in the Cape on a business trip. He is stopping at the St. Charles.

J. B. Smith, an insurance man of St. Louis is in the Cape looking after business matters and is stopping at the St. Charles.

D. E. Hodges of Murphysboro, Ill., is in the Cape on a business trip, and is stopping at the Terminal.

Mike Miggins an old Cape citizen has returned from St. Louis where he has been for a long time. He expects to remain here permanently. He is stopping at the Prescott.

R. F. Cox, F. M. Cox, R. T. Miner, Mr. Stroder, Noah Young, F. S. Markel and W. H. Coats of Allenville witnesses in the Hull case, are stopping at the Terminal Hotel.

The four young men recently recruited for enlistment in the U. S. Army, at the local station, passed final examination at Jefferson Barracks successfully, according to information received this morning by Sergeant O'Rourke.

J. E. Sample an employee of the Post Office department, was wearing a broad smile today, and is treating his friends, the cause was the new arrival of a fine big boy at the Sample home on Heenerson ave., Thursday morning.

Assistant Postmaster Cain, is taking advantage of these days of sunshine by making it a point to walk five miles each day. Sometimes this constitutional has to be taken in installments, but at the end of each day, finds that he has adhered to his resolution. We will expect to see excellent results, in a short time.

Just received a big consignment of Fresh Oysters, Cat Fish, Buffalo Black Bass, Crappy and Red Snapper at Scott's, 22 Main street. 26.

Aly Jaynes of Puxico, is in town this week on business, he and John Boss of this city, are contemplating making extensive improvements on their property in the west end.

The Commercial Club will hold the next meeting Friday March 6th at which time the secretary will have numerous propositions received since the Commercial Club advertisement in last Sunday's St. Louis Republic.

Everyone interested in the Main Street is urged to attend the conference with the City Council Committee at the Commercial Club tonight.

Many of our citizens are sending to friends copies of the Southeast Missouri section, published in last Sunday's Republic. Copies may be had from Secretary of the Commercial Club at two cents a copy.

If you believe that you need Glasses or that you want your Present Glasses Changed, we will test your eyes carefully according to the most modern methods. Then if we find that you need glasses we will make them at the right prices. N. S. Weiler, Graduate Optician, 126 Main Street.

Kent Wilson, Mayor of Jackson and the best mayor that city ever had, was in Cape Girardeau this morning. Mr. Wilson became angry at a recent meeting of the city council and resigned. He was induced, however, to reconsider the matter and is still holding down the job as mayor.

O. H. McCarty superintendent of the Frisco was in the Cape Saturday, looking after traffic interests of his line, and it is reported that he is interesting himself in the recent decline of liquor shipments to this point, and that his investigations are likely to result disastrously to some of the straw bosses who are trying to serve too many interests.

J. C. Lobeski, a business man of Campbell, is in the Cape looking after business affairs. He is stopping at the Prescott.